

DIRECTIONS TO CHARLES DARWIN HOUSE

Charles Darwin House is situated at 12 Roger Street, London WC1N 2JU, which is right in the heart of London making it easily accessible by public transport. We strongly advise delegates against driving into central London by car, however if you do decide to drive to Charles Darwin House please note that we are situated within the congestion charge zone which operates weekdays 07:00-18:00 and costs £8 per day.

Parking is not available at Charles Darwin House except for 2 disabled parking bays which can be used if prior notice is given. Alternative parking is available at nearby NCP car parks; however please note that parking costs will be very high in the central London area.
